

Poster printing and delivery service

My name is (Dr) A(njo) Elgersma. After a university career, I work as a self-employed independent scientist and started an enterprise 'Anjo Elgersma' (SME) that offers labour and services, e.g. scientific input for collaborative research and writing of publications, lectures, consultancies, editing, organisational assistance, etcetera.

Professional posterservice for EGF Cork

As a commercial service for the EGF 2018 meeting I can offer help to authors of posters in:

- editorial check of draft version (typography, style, contents)
- printing of your poster A0 (84 x 119 cm, full-colour satinated 150 g paper) and delivery to the conference site: € 35,- your benefits: no need to bring it yourself, no risk of forgetting or losing it, no damage risk during travel, no luggage fee on the flight
- putting up your poster to the appropriate poster board: €5,- your benefit: poster will be displayed on time, even if you are delayed
- home delivery of your poster by post after the meeting: €20,- your benefits: no fuss in taking down your poster, no risk of damage or loss during travel, no luggage fee on the flight; your poster will continue to be on display even if you leave before the end of the conference

How to order?

If this quotation is of interest to you, please contact me at EGFposterservice@gmail.com and indicate:

- the desired service(s),
- your name and address,
- a pdf file of your poster

I will then send a tailor-made offer and draft invoice for your information and approval of your administration. In view of smooth processing, please contact me a.s.a.p. as your pdf file should be received by 14 June. Last-minute services are possible: 15 June after 13:00 h à € 45,-; for € 60,- posters can be accepted on Saturday 16 June, until 15 h (CET).

History of the posterservice

The posterservice has been successfully offered since 2015 to a range of meetings such as the European Grassland Federation (Wageningen, 2015; Trondheim, 2016; Sardinia, 2017), the International Conference on the Assessment of Animal Welfare at Farm and Group Level, Wageningen, 2017, and EAAP (Belfast, 2016; Tallinn, 2017).
